DAY 4, SATURDAY ..... Full Day in Buenos Aires

Today is at leisure, to revisit some of your favorite places in the city. Shop for leatherwear and designer clothes. Take in the panoramic views of the Delta, marvel at the unique landscape and learn about the history of this distinctive region, north of the capital. Enjoy one of the most favorite and beloved places of many Argentine families, discovering the typical Delta houses on stilts, schools, rowing clubs and observing the lifestyle of the locals. Return to Tigre to enjoy lunch at a local restaurant housed in a beautiful building by the river. evening is at leisure to discover the city's vibrant nightlife, or perhaps treat yourself to an Argentine beef dinner at one of the city's many superb steak restaurants

Overnight: Buenos Aires

Meals: Breakfast

DAY 5, SUNDAY ..... Buenos Aires to Mendoza

Today, depart Buenos Aires by flight to Mendoza, the center of Argentina's renowned wine industry. Upon arrival, you'll see the beautiful mountains and trees, harmoniously mixed with the vintage scents that invade the city. The city's wine, art and culture magically merge in every corner of this province, founded in the 16th century by Spanish settlers. Spend your evening at leisure, or perhaps join the optional tour Dinner and Wine Pairing in Mendoza. After a brief lesson with the bartender, learn how to make an "old fashioned fungi" with mushrooms and bourbon, then savor an exquisite four-course dining experience at newly Michelin's listed Centauro Restaurant with local wine pairings, and gain an understanding of the three wine areas of Mendoza.

Overnight: Mendoza

DAY 6, MONDAY ..... Mendoza Wineries

Morning visit to the Bodega Achaval-Ferrer Winery, one of the award-winning boutique vineyards in Mendoza. Here, tour the vineyard and learn about the harvesting, winemaking process, and the viticulture history of Mendoza. An expert details the importance of wine tasting to understand the properties of wine and shares tastes of some of the fine wines in the cellar. Then, continue on to Norton Vineyards where you will have the opportunity to be an oenologist for a day and create your own wine. This recreational activity allows you to blend wine combining varieties and discovering aromas, textures, and complexity. After, proceed to Lamadrid Wines, a family-run winery committed to the production of wine of the highest quality. Tour the vineyard and visit the cellar. Enjoy a light lunch of empanadas, along with tastings of different types of wine, while admiring the stunning views of the Cordon del Plata mountain range. Later, drive back to the hotel.
